

DIE ZAUBERFLOTE

W.A. Mozart

After wandering accidentally into the land of The Queen of the Night, Prince Tamino is rescued by three ladies who show him a picture of the beautiful Pamina, with whom he falls instantly in love. He sets out to save Pamina from her abductor—Sarastro—aided by a magic flute and accompanied by the bird-catcher Papageno. During his journey, Tamino realizes that Sarastro is, in fact, a noble and sage priest who understands Tamino to be destined for Pamina—if only the duo can overcome a number of arduous trials.
